

There is an error on page 31 in the rationale following code 99477. The first sentence in the first paragraph should state:

“Code 99477 and related cross-references were established to report the initial intensive care for a neonate 28 days of age or less who requires intensive observation, frequent interventions, and other intensive care services.”