

National Doctors Back To School Program 2007-2008

More minority children should grow up to be doctors. Let's do our part to make that happen. To increase the number of minority physicians practicing medicine, and to help end disparities in health care, the Commission to End Health Care Disparities encourages children from underrepresented groups to consider a career in medicine.

DBTS Coordinators:

Sandra Gadson, MD
NW Indiana Dialysis Center
569 Tyler Street
Gary, IN 46402
219-885-3300
sandragadson@comcast.net