

OVERSIGHT BY THE STATES

Most states require an in-person examination of a patient before a doctor can issue a prescription online. Here is a snapshot of states that have instituted such requirements through law, medical board policy or both.

- State medical board policy and state law
- State medical board policy only
- State law only

NOTE: THE LAWS OR MEDICAL BOARD REGULATIONS DO NOT APPLY TO OSTEOPATHS IN NEW MEXICO, TENNESSEE, WASHINGTON AND WEST VIRGINIA.
