Dr. Nathan Davis Awards for Outstanding Government Service

Feb. 11
Grand Hyatt Washington
Washington, D.C.

Submission information

Inaugurated by the AMA in 1989, this awards program recognizes significant achievements by elected and career public servants in national, state and local governments.

Awarded to elected and career public servants in national, state and local government, the Dr. Nathan Davis Awards for Outstanding Government Service, which are named for the founder of the American Medical Association, are presented for outstanding contributions that “promote the art and science of medicine and the betterment of public health.”

Through these awards, the AMA strives to encourage and stimulate public recognition for the highest standards of service throughout the levels of government and in the private sector. The awards underscore the significant accomplishments attained by men and women who are giving of themselves to advance the well-being of all.

To uphold the dictates of its constitution, the AMA, on behalf of its members, looks forward to receiving your nominations, and to selecting and saluting the recipients of the 2020 Dr. Nathan Davis Awards for Outstanding
