Leveraging E-consults in Practice

Webinar details

E-consults are synchronous or asynchronous communications between clinicians, used to streamline patient care and give physicians access to specialists that may not otherwise be easily available in their practice or geographic area. They can also improve patient experiences and reduce unnecessary health care services. Join this session to learn more about how e-consults are being used in practice and ask your questions during the live Q&A!

URL: https://www.ama-assn.org/about/events/leveraging-e-consults-practice
Copyright 1995 - 2021 American Medical Association. All rights reserved.
Speaker

- Stacy Lloyd, MPH, Director of Digital Health & Operations, American Medical Association (moderator)
- Alfred Atanda, MD, Surgical Director, Center for Sports Medicine, Nemours Children’s Health

Webinar recording

Learn more about the AMA’s Future of Health Immersion program and how to get involved.