

Council on Medical Education reports

The Council on Medical Education studies and evaluates all aspects of medical education continuum and recommends policies for medical and allied health education. The council also recommends the means by which the AMA provides information, leadership and direction to the existing inter-organizational bodies dealing with medical and allied health education.

Accreditation reports

These reports examine the extent to which the current processes for accreditation are designed to facilitate an ideal medical education continuum.

Read the reports.

AMA policy reports

These reports provide the Council's recommendations on the reconciliation and sunseting of AMA policies related to medical education.

Read the reports.

Certification and licensure reports

These reports provide updates on certification and licensure processes, including continuing board certification.

Read the reports.

Continuing medical education (CME) reports

These reports focus on continuing medical education.

Read the reports.

General medical education reports

These reports cover a range of topics not covered by the other category pages.

Read the reports.

Graduate medical education (GME) reports & issue briefs

These reports and issue briefs focus on graduate medical education.

Read the reports.

International medical graduates (IMG) reports & issue briefs

These reports and issue briefs focus on items specific to international medical graduates.

Read the reports.

Interprofessional education reports

These reports address interprofessional education.

Read the reports.

Physician workforce reports

These reports focus on physician workforce considerations.

Read the reports.

Undergraduate medical education (UME) reports

These reports focus on undergraduate medical education.

Read the reports.