

About the House of Delegates

This democratic forum represents the views and interests of a diverse group of member physicians from more than 170 societies. These delegates meet twice per year to establish policy on health, medical, professional and governance matters, as well as the principles within which the AMA's business activities are conducted.

Guidelines for Responding to Request \(PDF, members only\)

Resources for delegates

- Find Information for Delegates and Societies in the House of Delegates.
- Explore the House of Delegates Pictorial Directory \(sign-in required\) for delegate contact information.
- Find information and meeting details for the Specialty and Service Society.