

Resident & fellow leadership opportunities

RFS Governing Council chair-elect

Governing council members are responsible for directing the programs and activities of the RFS.

- Chair-elect application (PDF, members only)

Applications are due Sept. 26, 2022.

RFS sectional/alternate sectional delegate

Sectional delegates represent the interests of resident and fellow physicians in the House of Delegates. The term for a sectional/alternate delegate is one year.

- Sectional/alternate delegate application (DOCX, members only)

Applications are due Sept. 26, 2022.

Board of Trustees resident member

The AMA Board of Trustees is responsible for implementing AMA policy. The term for the resident member is two years.

- BOT application (DOCX, members only)

Applications are due Sept. 26, 2022.

Council on Medical Service (CMS) resident member

The AMA Council on Medical Service studies socioeconomic aspects that influence the practice of medicine. The term for the resident member is two years.

- CMS application (DOCX, members only)

Applications are due Sept. 26, 2022.

Council on Medical Education (CME) resident member

The AMA Council on Medical Education recommends educational policies to the AMA House of Delegates and recommends to the AMA Board of Trustees the appointments of representatives to medical education organizations, accrediting bodies and certification boards. The term for the resident member is two years.

- CME application (DOCX, members only)

Applications are due Sept. 26, 2022.

Council on Constitution & Bylaws (CCB) resident member

The AMA Council on Constitution & Bylaws is responsible for reviewing rules and regulations for AMA sections. The term for the resident member is two years.

- CCB application (DOCX, members only)

Applications are due Sept. 26, 2022.