Resident & fellow leadership opportunities

The AMA is your ally in providing you with opportunities to develop your leadership skills and advocate for patients and the profession.

Resident seat—ACGME Review Committee for Psychiatry

The ACGME is seeking a resident to join the Review Committee for Psychiatry. The resident member participates as a full voting member in all Review Committee activities, including program review and policy discussion, and is also a member of the ACGME Council of Review Committee Residents (CRCR). The term is two years, commencing in June 2022. Please note, nominations will be considered by the AMA Board of Trustees at the April 2022 meeting and forwarded to the ACGME. The ACGME will render the final decision at the June 2022 meeting. Applications are due March 11, 2022.

Federation representation in the RFS

Each medical specialty society, Federal Service (Army, Navy, Air Force, Public Health Service and Department of Veterans Affairs) and professional interest medical association represented in the House of Delegates is entitled to representation in the RFS Assembly at a rate of one voting representative for every 100 resident/fellow members of the organization who are members of the AMA.

Credentialing is completed in advance of each AMA Annual/Interim Meeting and is separate from credentialing for representation in the HOD. Contact Rosa Karbowiak at rosa.karbowiak@ama-assn.org to learn more.
