Resolution submission
Contribute to MAS policymaking efforts by submitting a resolution for consideration at the 2021 MAS June Meeting. The resolution submission deadline is March 26. Submit resolutions and direct any questions to mas@ama-assn.org.

New to the policymaking process? Access our new education module, How AMA Policy is Made, and learn how MAS members influence the AMA’s policymaking efforts.

Comment and vote on resolutions

Watch your email for an opportunity to review, comment and vote on policy proposals using our online forum. Email mas@ama-assn.org with any questions.

Education sessions

African, Black, and Caribbean voices: Patient narratives as a means to counter racism and unconscious bias in medicine

June 6, 11:30 a.m.–12:45 p.m. (during the APS meeting)

Join the AMA Academic Physicians Section (APS) and MAS for a live session to explore listen to narratives from underserved populations, in particular African, Black and Caribbean patients, demonstrating their experiences of systemic racism, bias, prejudice and stereotyping in their interactions with the health care system. Academic physicians and all others interested in progress towards health equity will gain insights into improving trust within the patient-physician relationship and expanding individual stories to actions combating health disparities at the systemic level.

Speakers

- Khanh-Van T. Le-Bucklin, MD, MEd, APS chair-elect, vice-dean, medical education, University of California, Irvine School of Medicine
- Candice Taylor Lucas, MD, MPH, FAAP, HS, associate clinical professor, Department of Pediatrics, Pediatric Exercise & Genomics Research Center (PERC); associate program director, UCI/CHOC pediatric residency program, University of California, Irvine School of Medicine
- Bukky Ajagbe, DO, MBA, Medical Student Section (MSS) representative, MAS Governing Council, Lincoln Memorial-DeBusk College of Osteopathic Medicine
- Elizabeth Valencia, MD, JD, assistant professor, Department of Radiology, Division of Radiology
