The Senior Physicians Section (SPS) met virtually on Sunday, Nov. 7.

Business of the meeting

The SPS Governing Council met Wednesday, Nov. 3 to review HOD resolutions and reports related to senior physician issues. Four SPS resolutions were submitted to the HOD for consideration at the meeting.

The assembly meeting included a discussion of SPS business items and reviewed two Council on Medical Education reports coming forward at the November 2021 Special Meeting from prior SPS resolutions submitted.

Education sessions

SPS sponsored an educational program on Sunday, Nov. 7 entitled, "Breaking the script—Improving end-of-life care communication for seniors and LGBTQ elders." This well-attended program featured Carey Candrian, PhD, associate professor of the division of general internal medicine at the University of Colorado School of Medicine.

The panelists were:

- Magda Houlberg, MD, LGBTQ Advisory Committee
- Frank Dowling, MD, LGBTQ Advisory Committee
- Deaton Jones, MSS Governing Council
- Amita Gupta, MD, MHS, professor of medicine and international health, Johns Hopkins University

The program was moderated by Ved Gossain, MD, chair-elect of the AMA Senior Physicians Section. This program discussed how physicians can make communications changes to improve care and advance equity in aging.

Visit the education sessions page for additional information on this topic and other sessions.
For additional information on the November SPS meeting, visit the section's agenda & resources page.

URL: https://www.ama-assn.org/member-groups-sections/senior-physicians/sps-november-2021-meeting-highlights
Copyright 1995 - 2021 American Medical Association. All rights reserved.