The Resident and Fellow Section (RFS) met virtually on Saturday, June 5 and Sunday, June 6, with more than 150 residents and fellows representing a state and specialty society.

Business of the meeting

The RFS Assembly considered three reports and 17 resolutions prompting robust discussion on important issues such as:

- The effect of the COVID-19 pandemic on Graduate Medical Education
- The impact of private equity on medical training
- Scope of practice
- COVID-19 vaccine rollout to emergency departments and urgent care facilities

The section immediately transmitted three resolutions to the House of Delegates for consideration at the June 2021 Special Meeting. Learn more about these resolutions and reports.

Governing council elections
