

Private Practice Physicians Section (PPPS) policymaking

Members of the Private Practice Physicians Section (PPPS) have a unique opportunity to shape AMA policy and action on critical private practice issues.

New to the policymaking process? Access the education module, How AMA Policy is Made, to learn how PPPS members influence the AMA's policymaking efforts.

Submit a resolution

PPPS members may submit resolutions for consideration at biannual meetings of the PPPS Assembly (June and November). PPPS resolutions adopted by the House of Delegates become AMA policy.

Please submit resolutions by April 30, 2023, to Jason Ranville at Jason.Ranville@ama-assn.org for consideration at the June meeting.

Consider these guidelines when writing a resolution:

- Does the resolution pertain specifically to the PPPS
- Does the resolution duplicate existing AMA policy (Visit the AMA's PolicyFinder for existing policy.)
- View an exemplar PPPS resolution (PDF)
- View a resolution template (PDF)
- For help with a resolution, contact PPPS Senior Policy Analyst Jason Ranville at jason.ranville@ama-assn.org
- If you're not quite ready to submit your resolution, you can post your resolution idea for other's input through the online member forum

Resolution Writing Committee

Need assistance with developing your resolution? Submit your resolution to the Resolution Writing Committee for assistance with developing your resolution. Resolutions should be forwarded to ppps@ama-assn.org by April 10, 2023, for review prior to the June 2023 meeting.

Comment on policy proposals

PPPS members are invited to comment on policy proposals in advance of each PPPS business meeting via the online member forum. Authors are encouraged to comment on their own resolutions if they believe doing so is informative to other reviewers.
