COVID-19 FAQs: Guidance for medical students - News & media coverage

Read a selection of press releases from the AMA regarding COVID-19 and the impact on medical students and medical education.

- July 14, 2020: AMA statement on Trump Administration decision on student visas
- July 9, 2020: AMA implores change proposed regulation on international students
- April 15, 2020: AMA outlines guidance to help protect resident and fellow physicians during COVID-19 response
- April 3, 2020: AMA issues guidance to medical schools, health systems to help protect medical students and early graduates during COVID-19 response