AMA in the News: July 2022

AMA in the News covers media coverage and mentions about the American Medical Association. Find articles recognizing our efforts in health care, advocacy, medical education and improvements in public health. Read coverage on the achievements of our leadership and the members of the AMA community.

1. AMA: Patients demand health data privacy, accountability, transparency
HealthITSecurity, July 26, 2022

AMA released a survey on patient health data privacy.

2. ‘I am terrified’: Doctors warn lawmakers of grim health impacts from Roe reversal
Healthcare Dive, July 20, 2022

Jack Resneck Jr., MD’s testimony on implications for physicians and patients from Roe reversal is featured.

3. What causes Docs to burn out? Prior authorization a big culprit, says AMA Prez
MedPage Today, July 19, 2022

Jack Resneck Jr., MD, addressed a range of issues with reporters in Washington, DC. (Free registration is required to view content.)
AMA chief: Criminalizing the practice of medicine is ‘incredibly dangerous’
MSNBC, July 18, 2022

AMA says Medicare payment schedule rule threatens patient access
Healthcare Finance News, July 13, 2022

AMA released a statement from Jack Resneck Jr., MD, on Medicare Payment Schedule.

Physicians groups urge fuller integration of behavioral health, primary care
Medical Economics, July 8, 2022

Eight leading physician organizations are calling on health care policymakers and payers to adopt policies aimed at more fully integrating behavioral health services into primary care.