2023 WPS Annual Meeting highlights

The AMA Women Physicians Section (WPS) held its 2023 Annual Business meeting on Friday, June 9.

Resolutions review

During this session, the WPS reviewed several items of business before the House of Delegates. These included the following resolution authored by the section:

- Resolution 010: Advocating for Increased Support to Physicians in Family Planning and Fertility

WPS activities and elections

During the business meeting, updates on WPS activities were shared, including the availability of the Giambalvo (DOC) and Inspiration Award applications.

On Sunday, the WPS Associates meeting hosted a speed mentoring event. Topics for discussion ranged from physician entrepreneurship and navigating non-traditional roles in medicine to work-life harmony and fertility planning.

Lastly, the WPS re-elected Aleesha Shaik, MD, MPH, as chair and elected Siri Holton, MD, as vice chair.

For additional information on the A-23 WPS meeting, visit the section's agenda and resources page.