Call for Candidates for AMA Nomination for the ACGME Review Committee for Obstetrics & Gynecology

The AMA is soliciting AMA member candidates for nomination by the AMA Board of Trustees to serve as a member of the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education Review Committee for Obstetrics & Gynecology (ACGME RC-OBG).

TERM
The term of this position is 6 years, from July 1, 2019, through June 30, 2025. Review Committee members who have resigned before completion of the 6-year term cannot be appointed to another Review Committee for at least 2 years.

TIME REQUIREMENT
Nominees must be able to devote sufficient time to the Review Committee’s work. The Review Committee meets two times per year for program review, usually during February and April. An additional meeting may be scheduled in the fall. The duration of the meeting is 2 days when reviewing programs. Review Committee members must attend all Review Committee meetings. The new member will be expected to attend the Review Committee meeting in April 2019 as an observer.

Nominees will need sufficient time to fulfill the responsibilities to the Committee. This includes: an estimated 15-20 hours for program review assignments (up to 15 full reviews per meeting), subcommittee work (as assigned), as well as prep time for each Review Committee meeting to review agenda items (and related documents), and actual travel/attendance to each Review Committee meeting.

CRITERIA FOR NOMINATIONS TO ACGME RC-OBG
ACGME RC-OBG Requirements
1. Nominees must be currently board certified in Obstetrics & Gynecology by the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology (ABOG).

2. Although a Review Committee can have up to two members from the same state, they cannot be from the same institution. Accordingly, individuals should not be nominated from the following institutions:
   - University of Alabama Birmingham – Birmingham, AL
   - Kaiser Permanente – San Francisco, CA
   - State of Illinois (two current RC members from IL)
   - Ochsner Medical Center – New Orleans, LA
   - Johns Hopkins University – Baltimore, MD
3. Nominees must be skilled in the use of computers. Review Committee members must use electronic systems for many accreditation activities, including program reviews, and reimbursement of expenses.

4. Nominees must have knowledge and skills in analysis of data sets and a basic knowledge of interpreting statistics regarding resident experience and program performance for accreditation.

5. Nominees must be able to devote sufficient time to the Review Committee’s work. The Review Committee meets two times per year for program review, usually during February and April. An additional meeting may be scheduled in the fall. The duration of the meeting is 2 days when reviewing programs. Review Committee members must attend all Review Committee meetings. The new member will be expected to attend the Review Committee meeting in April 2019 as an observer.

6. Nominees will need sufficient time to fulfill the responsibilities to the Committee. This includes: an estimated 15-20 hours for program review assignments (up to 15 full reviews per meeting), subcommittee work (as assigned), as well as prep time for each Review Committee meeting to review agenda items (and related documents), and actual travel/attendance to each Review Committee meeting.

7. Nominees must be fellows of the American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists. Nominees should attend some of the CREOG and APGO Annual Meetings.

8. Nominees’ programs must have status of continued accreditation.

9. Preference will be given to program directors or recent program directors, but DIOs or others with GME education will be considered.

10. In order to increase geographic diversity, the Review Committee will give preference to nominees that work in institutions on the east or west coasts.

AMA Requirements
Each nominee recommended by the AMA must be a member of the AMA at the time of nomination. If appointed, he/she must maintain AMA member status throughout the term of appointment. AMA membership does not guarantee a position. Non-members may activate their membership online at www.ama-assn.org/go/join or call AMA Member Relations at 800.262.3211.
