AMA Foundation Donor Bill of Rights

The American Medical Association Foundation seeks to improve the health of Americans through philanthropic support of quality programs in public health and medical education. Our grants and awards are made possible by the generosity of AMA physicians and their families, foundations, businesses, organizations, and many charitably-minded individuals.

As a donor to the AMA Foundation, you have a right to:

1. Be informed of the Foundation’s mission, of the way the Foundation intends to use the donated resources, and of its capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.
2. Be informed of the identity of those serving on the Foundation’s governing Board, and to expect the Board to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.
3. Have access to the Foundation’s most recent audited financial statements.
4. Be assured your gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.
5. Receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition.
6. Be assured that information about your donation is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.
7. Expect that all interactions with the Foundation will be professional in nature.
8. Be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers, employees of the Foundation, or hired solicitors.
9. Have competent administration that can implement procedures to carry out Board policies.
10. Feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.

AMA Foundation Donor Privacy Statement

The American Medical Association Foundation places the highest priority on protecting the privacy of our donors and holds all donor information in strict confidence.

The American Medical Association Foundation does not and will not sell or trade a donor’s personal information to any other party.
