

Hyatt Regency Chicago

Chicago, Illinois

June 9-11, 2018

WPS Business Meeting and Reception

The AMA Women Physicians Section (WPS) hosted its business meeting and reception, which featured a talk on “The Voice of the Fearless Girl” by Patrice M. Schneider, CFA, from Middleton & Company.

The business meeting included a review of AMA-WPS items of business. The AMA-WPS sponsored three resolutions that are being considered at this meeting: Resolution 007, “Oppose the Criminalization of Self-Induced Abortion;” Resolution 008, “Health Care Rights of Pregnant Minors;” and Resolution 417, “Reducing Disparities in Obstetric Outcomes, Maternal Morbidity, and Prenatal Care.”

WPS Associates Luncheon and Business Meeting

The AMA-WPS looks forward to its Associates Luncheon and Business Meeting on Monday, June 11, at 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. in the Ogden Room. Highly regarded by past attendees, this event will feature a discussion on the impact of aging on women and updates from around the country about what state and specialty medical societies are doing to address issues related to women physicians. Associates will also have an opportunity to discuss activities related to AMA Women in Medicine Month, held in September. This year’s theme is Women in Medicine: Celebrating Our Legacy, Embracing Our Future.

New WPS Officers

Finally, the governing council held elections for its officers. Neelum Aggarwal, MD, was elected chair, and Niva Lubin-Johnson, MD, was elected vice-chair.