

MSS convention committees

Convention committees are small, representative groups that expedite the conduct of business at meetings of the MSS Assembly (each June and November). Serving on a convention committee is a great way to start getting involved in the AMA. Review details about each convention committee.

Responsibilities

Tasks and responsibilities vary by committee.

Terms of Service: One national meeting with responsibilities generally commencing one month prior to the meeting