Call for Candidates for AMA Nomination for the ACGME Review Committee for Nuclear Medicine

The AMA is soliciting AMA member candidates for nomination by the AMA Board of Trustees to serve as a member of the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education Review Committee for Nuclear Medicine (ACGME RC-NUCMED).

TERM
The term of this position is 6 years, from July 1, 2021, through June 30, 2027, with observation and orientation duties to begin as early as February 2021. Review Committee members who have resigned before completion of the 6-year term cannot be appointed to another Review Committee for 2 years.

TIME REQUIREMENT
Nominees must be able to devote sufficient time to the Review Committee’s work. The Review Committee for Nuclear Medicine meets two times per year, usually in February and April. The duration of the meetings is 1 to 1.5 days. At times, the Committee may meet via conference call depending on the meeting agenda. Review Committee members must attend all Review Committee meetings.

The nominee must have sufficient time to: review program information (an estimated 10 hours for program review assignments for each meeting); participate in subcommittee work (as assigned); prepare for each Committee meeting by reviewing agenda items and related documents; travel/attend each Review Committee meeting; and participate in other activities of the Review Committee. Anticipated meeting dates for the new member are as follows:

- Review Committee meeting to observe: February 2021 (Date TBD)
