

Chris Klomp

Director, Center for Medicare

Deputy Administrator, Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services

Senior Advisor to HHS Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr.

Chris Klomp is the Director of Medicare and Deputy Administrator at the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services. He also serves as the Chief Counselor at the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Chris has driven healthcare reform at state and federal levels, focusing on value-based care and interoperability. He built Collective Medical, has co-founded, advised, and served on the board of many innovative startups and on the Utah Digital Health Services Commission, and worked at Bain Capital and Bain & Company. Chris holds a B.A. with honors in Economics and English from BYU and an MBA from Stanford.

He lives in Washington, D.C., and Park City, UT, with his wife and four children.