

Rep. Jill Tokuda (D-Hawaii)

U.S. House of Representatives

Rep. Jill Tokuda represents Hawai'i's 2nd Congressional District and is the co-chair of the Bipartisan Rural Health Caucus, which provides a forum for members of Congress to advocate for policies to improve the delivery of health care and mental health services in rural areas. As co-chair, Rep. Tokuda works to highlight and solve real-world challenges such as the physician workforce shortage issue. To this end, the congresswoman has been supportive of minimizing the impact H-1B visa fees may have on the health care workforce pipeline.

A co-lead on H.R. 6468, the Rural Residency Planning and Development Act, Rep. Tokuda has cosponsored and worked diligently to support many legislative priorities of the AMA.
