

Rep. Kim Schrier, MD (D-Wash.)

U.S. House of Representatives

Rep. Kim Schrier, MD, represents Washington's 8th Congressional District. Prior to being elected to Congress in 2018, Rep. Schrier spent her career as a pediatrician. A strong and thoughtful physician voice in Congress, she is the newly minted chair of the Democratic Doctors Caucus.

As the first pediatrician in Congress, Rep. Schrier brings a critical voice to health care issues. She has led on Medicare payment reform, sponsoring legislation to tie Medicare payments to medical inflation. She has consistently worked to strengthen Medicaid and improve program stability, and has also sponsored bipartisan legislation to strengthen the Vaccines for Children Program.
