American Medical Association Awards for Outstanding Government Service

Feb. 13
Grand Hyatt Washington
Washington, D.C.

Submission information

Inaugurated by the American Medical Association in 1989, this awards program recognizes significant achievements by elected and career public servants in national, state and local governments.

Awarded to elected and career public servants in national, state and local government, the American Medical Association Awards for Outstanding Government Service are presented for outstanding contributions that “promote the art and science of medicine and the betterment of public health.”

Through these awards, the AMA strives to encourage and stimulate public recognition for the highest standards of service throughout the levels of government. The awards underscore the significant accomplishments attained by men and women who are giving of themselves to advance the well-being of all.

To uphold the dictates of its constitution, the AMA, on behalf of its members, looks forward to receiving your nominations, and to selecting and saluting the recipients of the 2024 American Medical Association Awards for Outstanding Government Service.

Please nominate one or more individuals in any of the categories cited herein who uphold and advance the criteria listed.
