Statement of interest

I became involved in the AMA my first year of medical school through policy development and analysis. I enjoyed the critical thought process involved in developing policy, which word to use in each situation and how to best advocate for that policy. I have played an active role in health policy on the state and national level since that time. During my training, and now practice, I have worked as a collaborator between states, specialties and sections. My training has brought me to many places and afforded me the opportunity to work with physicians from all different specialties. I am well suited to fill this role within the AMA YPS and House of Delegates. Through the relationships that I have built throughout the AMA over the last 15 years and with my background in health policy, I can act as a conduit through which gaps can be bridged and challenging policy problems can be traversed. For the last two years I have been privileged to serve the YPS at the Alternate Delegate. I am now committed to serving my fellow young physicians as the YPS Delegate and advancing the policy agenda of our section.
