

Memo to: Executive Directors
Constituent Medical Associations

From: James L. Madara, MD

Date: February 5, 2024

Subject: 2024 Constituent Society Delegate Apportionment

I am pleased to provide delegate apportionment figures for 2024. Under American Medical Association Bylaws (§2.1 and subsections), states and territories in the House of Delegates will be apportioned a total of 312 delegates, which is a decrease of 1 delegate over 2023.

Delegate apportionment is based on official AMA membership records as of December 31, 2023, with one delegate apportioned for every 1,000, or fraction thereof, AMA members. The attached table provides a state-by-state breakdown.

Those states that have endorsed regional medical student delegates or resident sectional delegates should be aware that these delegates are not reflected in the figures that appear in the constituent society apportionment table, but rather appear in separate tables. Regional medical student delegates and resident sectional delegates will be seated with their endorsing societies at in-person meetings. You should note, however, that student and resident alternate delegates serving temporarily will be seated in the space designated for the student or resident endorsed by your society even though they are likely to have been endorsed by another society; please be sure your delegation is aware of this situation. States are encouraged to include the students and residents they have endorsed in delegation activities and communications.

The credentialing process for June's House of Delegates meeting will begin shortly. Under AMA bylaws, delegates and alternate delegates must be certified before each meeting. You will receive a separate communication regarding credentials.

Please ensure that your delegates and alternate delegates have renewed their AMA memberships for 2024. AMA bylaws specify that all delegates (§2.0.1.1) and alternate delegates (§2.8.1) must be AMA members, and individuals who are not members will not be included on a delegation roster. You will be notified of any discrepancies. Delegation rosters can be found at <https://www.ama-assn.org/house-delegates/hod-organization/delegation-certification-rosters>.

Questions about the delegate apportionment process or the credentialing process should be directed to Jeanne Uehling, Director, Office of House of Delegates Affairs, at 312-464-4344 or by email to jeanne.uehling@ama-assn.org.

Notes:

* Official year-end membership figures.

1 This figure includes delegates allocated under §2.5 or other sections of the bylaws (e.g., §2.1.2).

2 The regular apportionment of delegates is one delegate for each 1000, or fraction thereof, AMA members in the state (§2.1.1 of the bylaws).

3 §2.1.1.1.1 of the bylaws permits constituent societies to retain delegates under some circumstances if membership information warrants a decrease from one year to the next.

Rhode Island and Virginia are the only societies for which this provision applies in 2024.

Arkansas, California, District of Columbia, Missouri, Ohio, and South Carolina are down one delegate after a one-year grace period in 2023.

4 Other includes American Samoa, Fed States of Micronesia, Federal Services (APO, FPO), Northern Mariana Islands, Palau, Marshall Islands

† §2.5 of the bylaws provides an additional delegate for those societies represented by the individuals elected to be speaker and vice speaker.

This table reflects information available as of January 31, 2024, and is subject to change.

Pursuant to American Medical Association Bylaws (§2.3 and subsections), medical student regional delegates and alternate delegates were elected utilizing a regional structure. The seven medical student regions are:

- Region 1: Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, Wyoming.
- Region 2: Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Wisconsin
- Region 3: Arkansas, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Texas.
- Region 4: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, Puerto Rico, South Carolina, Tennessee.
- Region 5: Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio, West Virginia.
- Region 6: Delaware, District of Columbia, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia.
- Region 7: Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New York, Rhode Island, Vermont.

For 2024, regional student delegates were apportioned according to year-end 2022 AMA medical student membership figures within a region, with a delegate being apportioned for every 2,000 student members in the region and additional delegates apportioned per Bylaw 2.3.2.

Medical Student Section regional delegates are “seated with the constituent association representing the jurisdiction within which such delegate’s educational program is located” (AMA Bylaw, §2.10.8). Alternate delegates substituting for a delegate shall be seated in the place of the delegate being temporarily replaced.

For 2024, Resident and Fellow Section sectional delegates were apportioned according to year-end 2022 AMA resident and fellow membership figures, with a delegate being apportioned for every 2,000 members (AMA Bylaws, §2.4 and subsections).

Resident and fellow sectional delegates are to be seated with their endorsing society (AMA Bylaw, §2.10.9). Alternate delegates who are substituting for a delegate will sit with the society that endorsed the delegate for whom the alternate is substituting.

Memo to: Executive Directors
National Medical Specialty Societies

From: James L. Madara, MD

Date: February 5, 2024

Subject: 2024 Specialty Society Delegate Apportionment

I am pleased to provide delegate apportionment figures for 2024. The apportionment is based on official AMA membership records and Policy G-600.027, "Designation of Specialty Societies for Representation in the House of Delegates." Constituent societies have been apportioned 311 delegates for 2024 (not including one delegate slot for the vice speaker per AMA Bylaw, §2.5). Consequently, 311 delegates were apportioned across the national medical specialty societies in the House. Adjustments have been made for a number of societies to maintain the parity called for in the bylaws.

Every society seated in the House of Delegates is entitled to one delegate, but the following 54 national specialty societies have more than one delegate (with a like number of alternate delegates):

Remaining national medical specialty societies are each apportioned one delegate (and one alternate) for 2024. The net result is that there will be 311 specialty society delegates this year. Delegate apportionment figures for all specialty societies appear in the 2024 Specialty Society Delegate Apportionment table accompanying this memo. Included are the five societies expected to be seated in the House in June.

Several specialty societies have endorsed resident and fellow sectional representatives (§2.4 of the bylaws) and are listed in a second table below. The delegate numbers above and in the Specialty Society Delegate Apportionment table do not include these resident and fellow sectional delegates, but allowance will be made to seat them with their endorsing societies when meetings take place in person. You should note, however, that resident sectional alternate delegates serving temporarily will be seated in the space designated for the resident endorsed by your society even though the alternate delegate is likely to have been endorsed by another society; please be sure your delegation is aware of this situation. Societies are encouraged to include the residents they have endorsed in delegation activities and communications.

Traditionally, delegates for national medical specialty societies with a single delegate have been seated in the House with the delegate's home state. Over the last few years, several specialty societies have indicated that they would like to be seated together, and these groupings will continue. Other specialty society delegations that would like to be seated together in the House should notify Jeanne Uehling in writing no later than March 15, 2024.

The credentialing process for the June meeting will begin shortly. Under AMA bylaws, delegates and alternate delegates must be certified before each meeting. Please ensure that your delegates and alternate delegates have renewed their AMA memberships for 2024. AMA bylaws specify that all delegates (§2.0.1.1) and alternate delegates (§2.8.1) must be AMA members, and individuals who are not members will not be included on a delegation roster. You will be notified of any discrepancies. Delegation rosters can be found <https://www.ama-assn.org/house-delegates/hod-organization/delegation-certification-rosters>.

Questions about the delegate apportionment process or the credentialing process should be directed to Jeanne Uehling, Director, Office of House of Delegates Affairs at 312-464-4344 or by email to jeanne.uehling@ama-assn.org.

Subject: 2024 Delegate Apportionment

Under our American Medical Association (AMA) bylaws (§2.6), the federal services (Air Force, Army, Navy, Public Health Service and the VA), American Medical Women's Association, American Osteopathic Association, National Medical Association, and professional interest medical associations are each allotted one delegate (and one alternate) as are AMA sections.

Please ensure that your delegates and alternate delegates have renewed their AMA memberships for 2024. AMA bylaws specify that all delegates (§2.0.1.1) and alternate delegates (§2.8.1) must be AMA members, and individuals who are not members will not be included on a delegation roster. You will be notified of any discrepancies. Delegation rosters can be viewed at <https://www.ama-assn.org/house-delegates/hod-organization/delegation-certification-rosters>.

The credentialing process for the June meeting will begin shortly. Under AMA bylaws, delegates and alternate delegates must be certified before each meeting.

Questions about the delegate apportionment process or the credentialing process should be directed to Jeanne Uehling, Director, Office of House of Delegates Affairs at 312-464-4344 or by email to jeanne.uehling@ama-assn.org.
