To Whom It May Concern:

The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) is proud to sponsor Dr Joey Whelihan as the AMA-RFS Delegate to the House of Delegates. Dr Whelihan has been a great asset to the organization, especially as liaison between the AMA-RFS and the AAP Section on Pediatric Trainees (SOPT). He is actively engaged with our delegation and has been a strong advocate for the health of children. His role this year represents an important opportunity and will be a significant component of advancing the AAP's priorities within the AMA over the next year.

During the meetings, he works with senior members of our delegation to learn advocacy skills such as giving testimony, drafting resolutions, and learning fundamentals of different health policy topics. We have experts on our delegation who he will work with and learn from directly, including the 2024 President of the AAP, Dr Ben Hoffman.

We look forward to his continued involvement with both organizations.

Sincerely,
