

Jasmin A. Eatman, M.S.

EDUCATION

Emory University Rollins School of Public Health, Atlanta, GA August 2022 – present
Gangarosa Department of Environmental Health
Ph.D. Student

Dissertation Title:

Emory University School of Medicine, Atlanta, GA August 2019 – present
M.D. Candidate
Medial Scientist Training Program

Morehouse School of Medicine, Atlanta, GA May 2016 – May 2018
Master of Science in Neuroscience (M.S.)
Dual-Degree Bachelors and Masters of Neuroscience Scholarship

Spelman College, Atlanta, GA August 2013 – May 2017

- Bachelor of Science (B.S.) in Biology with Honors
- Top 10 Graduate, Summa Cum Laude

WORK EXPERIENCE

Emory Department of Gynecology and Obstetrics, Graduate Research Assistant May 2023-present
Emory University; Atlanta, GA

- Conducts qualitative and quantitative research and scholarship on structural determinants of racial disparities in maternal health outcomes.
- Co-lead facilitator of semi-structured focus groups investigating experiences of Obstetrician Gynecologists and reproductive-aged Black women and interactions with issues of inequity in the healthcare system.

Emory University Rollins School of Public Health, Graduate Research Assistant August 2022 – May 2023
Emory University; Atlanta, GA

- Authored and conducted research and scholarship on the impacts of environmental toxicant exposures on reproductive health as part of the the REPRO Lab.
- Selected by principle investigator to lead multiple lab meetings on Implications of racial health disparities In scientific research.

Vot-ER, Policy and Strategy Partner August 2022 – present

- Ongoing policy strategist and partnership liaison with the American Medical Association
- Engage in monthly policy meetings to develop healthcare and civic engagement partnerships nationally
- Invited speaker to local and national civic engagement events

Vot-ER, Policy Intern December 2021 – August 2022

- Led national effort among authors and collaborators within Vot-ER and the American Medical Association to write "Voting as a Social Determinant of Health" Resolution (adopted as AMA policy, June 2022)
- Developed and presented policy testimony to the AMA House of Delegates

Whole Foods Market, Demonstration Coordinator September 2016 – January 2018
Atlanta, GA

- Coordinated brand ambassador demonstrations in Atlanta-based Whole Foods Market franchise.
- Created and presented monthly in-store food demonstrations and tastings.
- Cashier and Front-End management team member.

Spelman College Learning Resource Center, Tutor August 2014 – May 2015
Spelman College; Atlanta, GA

- Organized supplemental learning to improve student performance in undergraduate science, mathematics, and humanities subjects.

Dance Theatre of Syracuse, Dance Instructor
Syracuse, NY

August 2012 – May 2013

- Independently instructed weekly beginning ballet classes for dancers 5-8 years old.

LEADERSHIP ACTIVITIES

Liaison Committee on Medical Education, Independent Student Analysis

August 2022 - present

Co-Chair

- Nominated by peers to serve as co-chair of the Independent Student Analysis component of the Emory University school of Medicine accreditation review.
- Led a school-wide survey with >89% participation, coordinated the Independent Student Analysis committee to write an extensive report to share survey results with LCME review leadership and designed school-wide events to report findings to student body.
- Served as sole student on LCME Executive committee, representing student concerns and ISA report in a committee of administrators and faculty across Emory University School of Medicine.

American Medical Association (AMA), Minority Affairs Section

April 2023 – present

Medical Student Section Liaison

- Elected by AMA Minority Affairs Section to serve as the Medical Student Section Liaison to connect both sections on the basis of policy and synergistic activities to advance the mission of AMA.
- Writing policy and lobbying for successful passage through AMA house of delegates at annual and interim meetings of the organization.

American Medical Association, Medical Student Section

June 2022 – June 2023

Region IV Advocacy Chair

- Elected during the AMA House of Delegates Annual Meeting by Medical Student Section Region IV to lead cohesive regional advocacy activities.
- Organized Region IV Advocacy committee and facilitated advocacy programming for the region, including state representative policy seminars to engage medical students in policy around telehealth expansion and criminal justice reform

American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG)

October 2021 – March 2023

District IV, Medical Student Representative

- Maintain database of District IV medical student OB/Gyn Interest Groups and promote dissemination of Information from ACOG to these groups across 8 U.S. states, Puerto Rico, and the West Indies
- Attended and presented formal report at District and National Junior Fellow Advisory Council meetings
- Planned and led programming including the ACOG District IV Leadership Summit for medical students and In Plain Sight: Normalizing Diverse Clinical Presentations In Obstetrics and Gynecology

Council For the Advancement of Black Voices in Medical Education, Founder

May 2020 - present

Emory University School of Medicine; Atlanta, GA

- Co-Founder of a student organization aiming to reshape the Emory School of Medicine culture to better reflect student diversity and to improve the experience for students underrepresented in medicine through data collection and curricular and initiative development.
- Organized faculty-student nominations and inaugural administrative design and implemented structure for student representation in majority faculty-led diversity and anti-racism projects.

Emory School of Medicine OB/Gyn Interest Group, President

August 2020 – August 2021

Emory University School of Medicine; Atlanta, GA

- Co-president of student group comprised of those interested in pursuing a specialty in Obstetrics and Gynecology. Coordinated virtual advising series, informational programming, and interest group correspondence between students and faculty.

Student National Medical Association, President

October 2019 – May 2020

Emory University School of Medicine; Atlanta, GA

- President of largest Emory School of Medicine student organization, serving national mission of the Student National Medical Association, supporting and promoting underrepresented students in medicine

- Led the Emory SNMA interdisciplinary, cross institutional initiative “Declaring Racism a Public Health Crisis in DeKalb and Fulton Counties.” Successfully lobbied for a resolution passed by the Board of Commissioners of DeKalb and Fulton counties, declaring racism a public health crisis.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Physical and Mental Health Chair

April 2016 – May 2017

Eta Kappa Chapter

Spelman College; Atlanta, GA

- Designed and implemented programming promoting physical and mental health through Spelman College and in the larger community of West-End Atlanta.

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Prologue Module, Invited Guest Speaker

Emory University School of Medicine

- Invited by Emory School of Medicine faculty to lecture to entire class of first-year medical students during their introductory module (Prologue) on the history of racism in the reproductive justice movement and advocacy through medical education.

Integrations Module, Invited Guest Speaker

Emory University School of Medicine

- Invited by Emory School of Medicine faculty to lecture to entire class of third-year medical students during their transitional module (Integrations) on my social justice activities and initiatives during medical training.

In Plain Sight Digital Guidebook: National Book Tour, Invited Guest Speaker

April 2023-present

Lead presenter at over ten institutions, including:

Department of Female Pelvic Medicine and Reconstructive Surgery, New York University

Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, New York University

Department of Family Medicine, University of Virginia

Department of Family Medicine, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Yale University

- Leading a national book tour to share the conceptualization, design, and publication of the ACOG In Plain Sight Digital Guidebook and information about utilization of this resource for training of medical students and residents. Presented to residency programs during didactics, journal club, and grand rounds sessions.

Maternal Child Health Advocacy Panel, Invited Panelist

April 2023

Foundations of Maternal Child Health Course, Rollins School of Public Health, Emory University

- Served on panel of experts, including representatives from March of Dimes and Healthy Mothers, Health Babies Coalition of Georgia to discuss research and advocacy experience in maternal child health.

Caucus on the Social Determinants of Mental Health, Invited Guest Speaker

April 2023

American Psychiatric Association

- Presented with co-authors and organizational partners on the Voting as a Social Determinant of Health resolution, in addition to opportunities for organizational advocacy in the medical field.

Courageous Conversations Journal Club, Invited Guest Speaker

March 2023

Emory University Department of Gynecology and Obstetrics

- Led and facilitated discussion on the utility of race in scientific research and the representation of structural racism in both scientific research and clinical decision making.

Black History Month Lecture Series, Invited Guest Speaker

March 2023

Emory University Student National Medical Association

- Delivered a "Lunch and Learn" lecture on the history of the Reproductive Justice movement and advancing perinatal health equity through social justice

Grady Hospital Medicine Education Conference, Invited Guest Speaker

October 2022

Emory Division of Hospital Medicine - Grady Hospital Medicine Service

- Shared policy applications for integration of civic engagement and healthcare. Talk entitled "A Health Democracy: Should MD's/PA's & Learners Participate In Non-Partisan Voting Advocacy?"