

Call for Candidates for AMA Nomination for the National Resident Matching Program

The AMA is soliciting AMA member candidates for nomination by the AMA Board of Trustees for the National Resident Matching Program (NRMP) Board of Directors.

TERM

The term of service will begin July 1, 2022. Directors serve 4-year terms, with a limit of two terms.

TIME REQUIREMENT AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The NRMP Board of Directors has governance and oversight authority for the Main Residency Match and the Specialties Matching Service, ensures that all Match participants abide by the policies that govern those Matches, and informs the medical education community about trends in graduate medical education by conducting research using NRMP Match outcome data.

The Board meets three times each year, usually in October, January, and May. Board members also serve on one or more committees, which may entail additional travel if the work cannot be accomplished by email or telephone conference call.

CRITERIA FOR AMA NOMINATION TO NRMP

NRMP Requirements for this Opportunity

- Familiarity with issues encountered by applicants, residency programs, and teaching hospitals at the transition from undergraduate to graduate medical education and from core residency to fellowship training
- Knowledge of the medical education continuum, including undergraduate and graduate medical education, ACGME accreditation, state medical licensure, and specialty board certification

- An understanding of the unique requirements for graduates of international medical schools, including the processes for obtaining ECFMG certification and visas for entry into the United States
- Experience working with Boards of Directors, Trustees, Overseers

AMA Requirements

Each nominee recommended by the AMA must be a member of the AMA at the time of nomination. If appointed, he/she must maintain AMA member status throughout the term of appointment. AMA membership does not guarantee a position. Non-members may activate their membership online at <https://member.ama-assn.org/join-renew/> or call AMA Member Relations at 800.262.3211.
