

Call for Candidates for AMA Nomination for the ACGME Review Committee for Colon and Rectal Surgery

The AMA is soliciting AMA member candidates for nomination by the AMA Board of Trustees for the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education Review Committee for Colon and Rectal Surgery (ACGME RC-CRS).

TERM

The term of the position is 6 years, from July 1, 2024, through June 30, 2030.

TIME REQUIREMENT

Nominees must be able to devote sufficient time to the Review Committee's work. The Review Committee meets for program reviews during the month of January, and April and August (report session), for interim requests and other Review Committee business. The duration of meetings is typically 1.5 to 2 days when reviewing programs or when a retreat or business meeting is associated with the program review meeting. Review Committee members must attend all Review Committee meetings.

Nominees will need sufficient time to fulfill the responsibilities to the Committee. This includes: an estimated 25 hours for program review assignments (up to 4-5 full reviews per meeting), subcommittee work (as assigned), as well as prep time for each Review Committee meeting to review agenda items (and related documents) and actual travel/attendance to each Review Committee meeting.

Anticipated dates for ACGME Review Committee Activities:

- One Review Committee meeting as observer – April 2024
- Two Review Committee accreditation meetings per year – usually during January and April
- One additional virtual meeting – in August

CRITERIA FOR AMA NOMINATION TO ACGME RC-CRS

ACGME RC-CRS Requirements for this Opportunity

1. Nominees must be currently certified by the American Board of Colon and Rectal Surgery and must have experience as a colon and rectal surgery program director along with interest in competency assessment.
2. Although a Review Committee can have up to two members from the same state, they cannot be from the same institution or city/metropolitan area. Accordingly, individuals must not be nominated from the following institutions and areas:
  - Saint Joseph Mercy Health System – Ann Arbor, MI
  - Mayo Clinic – Rochester, MN
  - University of Washington – Spokane, WA
3. The Review Committee seeks to recruit members who represent the broader specialty with respect to gender, ethnicity, race, geography, and training facility type.
4. The nominees' programs must possess a current status of continued accreditation.
5. The nominee must demonstrate evidence of scholarly activity and academic leadership in the specialty commensurate with their academic rank.
6. Nominees must have at least 3 years' experience as a program director with no more than 3 years since serving in that capacity.
7. Additional characteristics that are desired, but not required (absence of these characteristics is not sufficient justification for rejecting a nominee):
  - Demonstrated skills in educational program development
  - Experience in institutional quality programs
  - Not residing or working in Michigan, Minnesota, or Washington
8. Nominees must be skilled in the use of computers. Review Committee members must use electronic systems for reimbursement of expenses and most accreditation activities (e.g., program reviews) and have frequent virtual ACGME and RC meetings.
9. Nominees must be able to devote sufficient time to the Review Committee's work. The Review Committee meets for program reviews during the month of January, and April and August (report session), for interim requests and other Review Committee business. The duration of meetings is typically 1.5 to 2 days when reviewing programs or when a retreat or business meeting is associated with the program review meeting. Review Committee members must attend all Review Committee meetings.
10. Nominees will need sufficient time to fulfill the responsibilities to the Committee. This includes: an estimated 25 hours for program review assignments (up to 4-5 full reviews per meeting), subcommittee work (as assigned), as well as prep time for each Review Committee meeting to review agenda items (and related documents) and actual travel/attendance to each Review Committee meeting.

AMA Requirements

Each nominee recommended by the AMA must be a member of the AMA at the time of nomination. If appointed, he/she must maintain AMA member status throughout the term of appointment. AMA membership does not guarantee a position. Non-members may activate their membership online at <https://member.ama-assn.org/join-renew/> or call AMA Member Relations at 800.262.3211.
